The common elements shall remain undivided, and no unit owner may bring any action for partition or division of any part thereof while the property is subject to this Declaration. Any covenant to the contrary is void.

SECTION 7. OWNERSHIP TO BE FEE SIMPLE.

Each individual unit, together with its undivided interest in the common elements shall be owned in fee simple by the unit owner and may be individually conveyed and encumbered and be the subject of ownership, possession, sale or other disposition as though it were solely and entirely independent of the other units, and the individual titles and interest shall be recordable. c. Powers and Duties of the Association. The Association shall have such powers and duties as may be granted to it by the Oregon Condominium Act, together with such additional powers and duties contained in this Declaration and the Bylaws.

d. Declarant Control of Association; Interim Board of Directors. Declarant will appoint an interim board of directors for the Association. Declarant hereby reserves the right to control the Association until the earlier of (a) the date of conveyance to persons other than Declarant of seventy-five percent (75%) of the units which Declarant may submit to this condominium, or (b) seven years from the date the first unit is conveyed. Accordingly, upon the recording of the Declaration and Bylaws, the interim directors shall serve until the turnover meeting is held as provided in the Bylaws.

e. Management Agreements, Contracts, and Leases. The units are intended to be used as residential living quarters.

elements and additions or improvements to the common elements shall be the responsibility of the Association of Unit Owners and shall be carried out as provided in the Bylaws. If the mortgagee of any unit owner determines that the Association of Unit Owners is not providing an adequate maintenance, repair and replacement program for the project, such mortgagee, at its option, may deliver a written notice to the Association of Unit Owners by delivering the same to the registered agent, required pursuant to ORS 100.105(j), setting forth the particular defects which it believes exist in the maintenance, repair and replacement program. If the specified defects are not corrected within 90 days subsequent to the receipt of such notice, then, and in that event, the mortgagee upon written notice to the registered agent that it is exercising its proxy rights thereafter shall have the right to attend succeeding annual or special meetings of the Association of Unit Owners. At such meetings it shall have the right to cast a vote, for each unit on which it holds a mortgage lien, on all business coming before such meeting, which said proxy right shall continue until the defects listed on the aforementioned notice are corrected.

The Association of Unit Owners shall have the right, to be exercised by the board of directors, or the manager employed by the board of directors, to have access to each unit as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of the common elements, to make emergency repairs therein necessary for the public safety, to prevent damage to the common elements or to another unit, or to abate any nuisance existing in any unit.

A reserve fund shall be established for the initial months of the Property operation equal to at least a two months' estimated common area charge for each unit. Each unit's share of the reserve fund shall be collected and transferred to the Association of Unit Owners at the time of closing of the sale of each unit and maintained in a segregated account for the use and benefit of the Association of Unit Owners. The contribution to the reserve fund for each unsold unit shall be paid to the Association of Unit Owners by Declarant within 60 days after the date of the conveyance of the first unit in each stage. The purpose of the fund is to ensure that the Association of Unit Owners will have cash available to meet unforeseen expenditures, or to acquire additional equipment or services deemed necessary or desirable by the board of directors. Amounts paid into the reserve fund shall not be considered as advance payments of regular assessments.

SECTION 13. MANAGEMENT OF AFFAIRS OF ASSOCIATION OF UNIT OWNERS.

the turnover meeting, the affairs of the Association of Unit Owners shall be managed by Declarant as provided in Section 28. The board of directors shall adopt administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation, maintenance and use of the Property and to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of the respective units and of the common elements by the several unit owners. The board of directors may retain an individual or firm to act as manager of the Property. Any such agreement shall provide for a term of three years and may be terminated, with or without cause, upon 90 days' notice to all parties affected.

SECTION 14. ADOPTION OF BYLAWS.

The undersigned owner of the Property, subject to this Declaration, has adopted, pursuant to the requirements of the Oregon Condominium Act, the Bylaws attached hereto, marked Exhibit "C", to govern the administration of the Property.

The Bylaws may be amended from time to time as provided therein.

SECTION 15. COMPLIANCE WITH BYLAWS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS.

Each unit owner shall comply with the Bylaws and with the administrative rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and with the covenants, conditions and restrictions in this Declaration or in the deed to the owner's unit. Failure to comply therewith shall be grounds for an action maintainable by the Association of Unit Owners or by an aggrieved unit owner, in addition to other sanctions which may be provided by the Bylaws or by the administrative rules and regulations. Unit owners shall have similar rights of action against the Association of Unit Owners.

SECTION 16. PERSON TO RECEIVE SERVICE OF PROCESS IN CERTAIN CASES.

SECTION 17. EASEMENTS AND OTHER INTERESTS.

The Association of Unit Owners, pursuant to ORS 100.405(5), has the authority to execute, acknowledge, deliver and record on behalf of the unit owners, permits, easements, rights-of-way, licenses and other similar interests affecting the general common elements for utilities, roads and other purposes reasonably necessary or useful for the proper maintenance or operation of the property. The granting of any interest pursuant to this Section 17 shall be first approved by at least 75 percent of the unit owners. The instrument granting an interest pursuant to this Section 17 shall be executed and acknowledged by the Chairman and Secretary and shall state that such granting was approved by at least 75 percent of the unit owners.

SECTION 18. APPORTIONMENT OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES.

The receipts of the property shall be distributed among and the common expenses shall be charged to the unit owners, including the Declarant, according to their respective interests in the common elements. Assessments shall first commence upon the conveyance of the first unit. Unsold units which are unoccupied may, for a period no longer than 60 days after conveyance of the first unit in the stage in which the unsold unit is included, be accorded a reasonably reduced assessment. Receipts by unit owners for rental of their unit shall not constitute common receipts. No unit owner may be exempted from liability for the owner's contribution toward the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common elements or by abandonment of the owner's unit.

SECTION 19. LIEN OF ASSOCIATION AGAINST UNIT.

The board of directors shall have the authority and the duty to levy and enforce the collection of general and special assessments for Common Expenses. Whenever the Association of Unit Owners levies any assessment for common expenses against a unit, the Association of Unit Owners, upon complying with this section, shall have a lien upon the individual unit and the undivided interest in the common elements appertaining to such unit for the reasonable value of such common expenses allocable to such unit and for any unpaid assessments and interest as provided in ORS 100.450(2)(b), plus costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and the lien shall be prior to all other liens or encumbrances upon the unit, except:

- a. Tax and public improvement assessment liens, and
- b. A first mortgage or trust deed of record.

Each assessment shall be a separate and personal debt and obligation of the unit owner against whom the same is assessed at the time the assessment fell due and shall be collectable as such. Such personal obligation shall not pass to successors in title unless assumed by them or required by law. The board of directors shall cause to be filed a notice of lien claim pursuant to ORS 100.450 with respect to any assessment which has not been paid within 30 days from the mailing of the notice of assessment. The notice of lien claim shall be filed within 10 days following the expiration of such 30 day period. The Association of Unit Owners shall be entitled to recover, in any suit to foreclose or action to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses, interest on the delinquent assessment at the rate of ten percent per annum and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees in such suit or action, or any appeal therefrom.

A lien for common expense assessments shall not be affected by any sale or transfer of a unit, except that a sale or transfer pursuant to a foreclosure of a first mortgage or trust deed shall extinguish a subordinate lien for assessments which became payable prior to such sale or transfer. Any such delinquent assessments which were extinguished pursuant to the foregoing provision may be reallocated and assessed to all units as a common expense. Any such sale or transfer pursuant to a foreclosure shall not relieve the purchaser or transferee of a unit from liability for, nor the unit from the lien of, an assessment made thereafter.

In case of foreclosure, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the unit; and the plaintiff in the foreclosure suit shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rental, without regard to the value of the security. An action to recover a money judgment, together with reasonable attorneys' fees for unpaid common expenses, may be maintained without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the claim for common proceeds.

SECTION 20. POWER OF PROPERTY MANAGER TO BID AT FORECLOSURE SALE.

In any suit to foreclose a lien of the Association of Unit Owners against a unit, the board of directors or the manager, acting on behalf of the unit owners, shall have power to bid on the unit at the foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey the same. The board of directors or the manager, acting on behalf of the unit owners, is prohibited from bidding on or otherwise acquiring a unit in any other foreclosure suit.

SECTION 21. INSURANCE.

The Association of Unit Owners, by and through the board of directors, shall obtain and keep in effect at all times insurance coverage as specified in the Bylaws.

The board of directors shall not be responsible for procuring fire and extended coverage insurance covering the furniture, equipment or contents located in the individual units.

The insurance obtained by the Association of Unit Owners, by and through the board of directors, as required by this section shall be a common expense.

SECTION 22. DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION.

If one or more of the buildings within the property are damaged, destroyed or partially condemned, the board of directors shall immediately proceed to rebuild and restore the building or buildings so damaged, destroyed or partially condemned so that the same will be returned to substantially the same condition in which the building or buildings existed prior to such damage, destruction or partial condemnation. Each unit and the general and limited common elements shall have substantially the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before, unless at least 90 percent of all the unit owners, plus Eligible Mortgage Holders holding mortgages on at least 51 percent of the units which are subject to Eligible Mortgage Holder mortgages, agree that the property shall not be rebuilt and restored. If the property is to be rebuilt and restored and the insurance proceeds are insufficient to rebuild and restore, the unit owners shall be liable for assessment for any deficiency as a common expense. If 90 percent of all the unit owners agree that the property shall not be rebuilt or restored, the property shall be considered removed from the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act in accordance with ORS 100.605. Any election to terminate the legal status of the Property after substantial destruction or a substantial taking in condemnation of the Property shall require the approval of Eligible Mortgage Holders holding mortgages on at least 51 percent of units subject to Eligible Mortgage Holder mortgages.

The Association of Unit Owners, through a trustee appointed for such purpose, shall represent the unit owners in any condemnation proceedings or in negotiations, settlements and agreements with the condemning authority for acquisition of the common areas or part thereof. In the event of a taking or acquisition of part or all of the common areas by a condemning authority, the award or proceeds of settlement shall be payable to the Association of Unit Owners, or any trustee, for the use and benefit of the unit owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear.

Upon written request to the Association of Unit Owners, identifying the name and address of the Eligible Mortgage Holder, insurer or guarantor and the unit number or address, any such Eligible Mortgage Holder or eligible insurer or guarantor shall be entitled to timely written notice of:

a. Any condemnation loss or any casualty loss which affects a material portion of the Property or any unit on which there is a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by such Eligible Mortgage Holder or eligible insurer or guarantor, as applicable;

b. Any delinquency in the payment of assessments or charges owed by an owner of a unit subject to a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by such Eligible Mortgage Holder or eligible insurer or guarantor, which remains uncured for a period of 60 days;

c. Any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy or fidelity bond maintained by the Association of Unit Owners; or

d. Any proposed action which would require the consent of a specified percentage of Eligible Mortgage Holders as specified herein.

SECTION 23. EASEMENTS FOR ENCROACHMENT.

If any part of the common elements now or hereafter encroaches upon any unit or if any unit now or hereafter encroaches upon any other unit or upon any portion of the common elements, an easement for such encroachment and the maintenance thereof, as long as it continues, shall exist. In the event a unit or a building containing units shall be partially or totally destroyed and then rebuilt, minor encroachments of any parts of the common elements upon any unit, any unit upon any other unit, or upon any portion of the common elements due to the construction shall be permitted as set forth in ORS 100.520 and easements for such encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist.

SECTION 24. MORTGAGE PROTECTION.

The liens created hereunder upon any unit shall be subject to and subordinate to, and shall not affect the rights of the holder of the indebtedness secured by any recorded first mortgage or deed of trust (meaning a mortgage with first priority over other mortgages) upon such interest made in good faith and for value, provided that after the foreclosure of any such mortgage there may be a lien created pursuant to Section 19 hereof on the interest of the purchaser at such foreclosure sale to secure all assessments, whether regular or special, assessed hereunder to such purchaser as unit owner after the date of such foreclosure sale, which said lien, if any is claimed, shall have the same effect and be enforced in the same manner as provided herein.

No amendment to this section shall affect the rights of the holder of any such mortgage recorded prior to recordation of such amendment who does not join in the execution thereof.

SECTION 25. LIMITS ON USE OF UNITS AND COMMON ELEMENTS.

Nothing shall be done or kept in any unit or in the common elements which will increase the rate of insurance on the project without the prior written consent of the board of directors. No owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in the owner's unit which will result in the cancellation of the insurance on any part of the project. The board of directors shall have the power to adopt rules and regulations for use of the common elements and there shall be no violation of such rules.

SECTION 26. PLAN OF DEVELOPMENT.

a. The Plan of Development for the property includes a maximum of 28 units to be developed in not more than five stages. Each stage will include additional land. Upon annexation, a supplemental declaration for the stage and a legal map thereof shall be recorded. The right to annex additional property will expire ten years from the date of recording this Declaration.

b. The minimum allocation of undivided interests in the common elements to each unit in Aspen Glen Townhouses, a condominium, upon completion of development, if Declarant elects to proceed with all stages of development, will be 1/28th. The allocation of undivided interests in the common elements to each unit at each stage of development will be a fraction, the numerator of which shall be one and the denominator of which shall be the total number of units submitted to the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act. All intended improvements in future stages shall be consistent with initial improvements in terms of quality of construction and shall be substantially completed prior to annexation. Assessments and votes appurtenant to each annexed unit shall become effective on the filing of a supplemental declaration covering such unit, which shall not occur until the substantial completion of such unit. All taxes and other assessments relating to property in later stages, covering any period prior to the addition of such property, shall be paid or otherwise satisfactorily provided for by the Declarant.

SECTION 27. APPORTIONING COMMON EXPENSES FOR ADDITIONAL STAGES.

As the additional stages are substantially completed pursuant to the Plan of Development, the Common Expenses for such additional stage or stages as defined in Section 14 of the Bylaws shall be added to the Common Expenses then existing for unit owners of the Property. The owners of each unit, including those units contained in the additional stage or stages, shall be liable for and pay a share of the total Common Expenses in proportion to their interest in the common elements, including the common elements added by the additional stage or stages. Each existing unit owner shall, by power of attorney, authorize the Declarant to make adjustments in the undivided interest of the unit owners in the common elements. In the event that a stage or stages are submitted to the provisions hereof during the Association of Unit Owners' fiscal year, the Common Expenses shall be adjusted on the basis of the period of time that the owners of units in such additional stage or stages shall be members of the Association of Unit Owners. The voting rights appurtenant to each unit added according to the Plan of Development shall become effective on the filing of a supplemental declaration covering such unit, which shall not occur until the substantial completion of such unit.

SECTION 28. ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL.

Until the earlier off the date of conveyance to persons other than Declarant, of 75 percent of the units in the last stage which Declarant may submit to the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act in accordance with the provisions thereof, or until seven (7) years following conveyance of the first unit:

- a. Declarant may appoint and remove officers and members of the board of directors of the Association of Unit Owners;
- b. Declarant shall have three votes with respect to each unit owned by it, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9;
- c. Declarant shall have the right to exercise all the powers of the board of directors under this Declaration and the Oregon Condominium Act, except that Declarant may not bind the Association of Unit Owners, prior to passage of control, either directly or indirectly to contracts or leases, including a management contract, unless the Association of Unit Owners is provided with a right of termination of any such contract or lease, without cause, which is exercisable without penalty at any time after transfer of control, upon not more than 90 days' notice to the other party thereto;
- d. This Declaration and the Bylaws shall not be amended without Declarant's consent; and
- e. Declarant shall have the right to occupy the common elements in connection with its construction activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with use of the common elements by other unit owners.

the common elements, method of determining liability for common expenses, right to common profits or voting rights of any unit as expressed in this Declaration unless such amendment has been approved by the owners of the affected units, and such unit owners shall record an amendment to this Declaration setting forth the altered percentage of each unit owner having an interest and the amendment is approved by the Real Estate Commissioner if required by law.

This Declaration may not be amended to diminish any special declarant right without the prior written consent of Declarant.

Except as hereinabove provided, this Declaration may be amended consistent with the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act by the affirmative vote of 75 percent of the voting rights at the annual meeting of the Association of Unit Owners, or at any special meeting called for such purpose, or by written proxy or written consent of 75 percent of the voting rights. Such amendment shall be effective upon the recordation of an instrument executed and acknowledged by the Chairman and Secretary of the Association of Unit Owners with the Deschutes County Recording Officer, setting forth such amendment in full and the amendment is approved by the Real Estate Commissioner if required by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, Declarant approves and adopts these Bylaws and annexes the same to the Declaration, which Bylaws and Declaration shall govern the operation of the Property. These Bylaws shall run with the land and shall be binding on and for the benefit of Declarant, acting as the present Association of Unit Owners, and its successors and assigns, and on all subsequent unit owners, and their mortgagees, tenants, occupants, employees and others who may use the Property.

1. DEFINITIONS: As used in these Bylaws, the term:

A. "Association" means all the unit owners acting as a group through an unincorporated association in accordance with these Bylaws.

B. "Majority of the Unit Owners" means the owners of more than 50 percent of the voting rights as provided in the Declaration. Whenever a percentage of the unit owners is specified, percentage means a percentage of voting rights.

C. "Eligible Mortgage Holder" means a holder of a first mortgage on a unit who has requested notice of certain matters from the Association in accordance with Section 803.08M of the FNMA Conventional Home Mortgage Selling Contract Supplement, or the applicable provisions of any successor publication.

2. ORGANIZATION OF ASSOCIATION: The Association shall be organized as an unincorporated association. The initial meeting of the Association shall be held within 30 days following the recording of these Bylaws. Declarant shall give at least seven but not more than 50 days' written notice of the initial meeting to all persons who are unit owners on the date of mailing of the notice.

ASSOCIATION RESPONSIBILITIES: The Association will have the responsibility of administering the Property, approving the annual budget, establishing and collecting assessments, arranging for the operation, management and maintenance of the Property, including negotiating and contracting with and supervising any person, persons, or business entity with respect to such matters, instituting, defending or intervening in litigation or proceedings in its own name or on behalf of two or more unit owners on matters affecting the Property, and taking such other actions and exercising such other powers as are authorized by the provisions of ORS 100.405 as the same may be amended from time to time.

4. TRANSITIONAL COMMITTEE: Within 60 days after the conveyance to persons other than Declarant of a total of 50 percent of the total number of units which Declarant may submit under the Declaration, Declarant shall call a meeting of unit owners to select a transitional committee. Declarant shall give notice in accordance with these Bylaws to each unit owner at least seven but not more than 50 days prior to the meeting. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and the time and place at which the meeting is to be held. At such meeting, the unit owners in attendance, other than Declarant, by vote of a majority of those present, shall select a transitional committee composed of three members. The members of the transitional committee shall serve until the turnover meeting to be held pursuant to subsection 5A. The function of the transitional committee shall be that of enabling ease of transition from control of the administration of the Association by Declarant to control by the unit owners. The transitional committee shall have access to all information, documents and records which Declarant must turn over to the unit owners pursuant to the Oregon Condominium Act. If the meeting required pursuant to this Section 4 is not called by Declarant, within the time specified, the meeting may be called and notice given by any unit owner within the time specified.

5. UNIT OWNERS' MEETINGS:

A. Turnover Meeting. Within 90 days after the expiration of the period of Declarant's control of the Association reserved in Section 28 of the Declaration, Declarant shall call a turnover meeting. Declarant shall give notice to each unit owner at least seven but not more than 50 days prior to the meeting. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and the time and place at which the meeting is to be held. At the turnover meeting:

(i) Declarant shall relinquish control of the administration of the Association and the unit owners shall assume the control.

(ii) The unit owners shall elect a board of directors in accordance with these Bylaws, and

(iii) Declarant shall deliver to the Association all items required to be delivered at the turnover meeting pursuant to the Oregon Condominium Act.

If Declarant fails to call the turnover meeting within the time specified above, the meeting may be called and notice given by any unit owner or any first mortgagee of a unit. In order to facilitate an orderly transition during the three-month period following the turnover meeting, Declarant or an informed representative of Declarant shall be available to meet with the board of directors on at least three mutually acceptable dates to review the documents delivered under paragraph (iii) of this subsection 5A.

B. Annual Meetings. Subsequent to the turnover meeting, the annual meetings of the Association shall be held on the first weekend following Labor Day of each year unless otherwise set by the Board of Directors. At such meetings, the Association shall, by ballot, elect directors and transact such other business as may come before the meeting. If the election of directors shall not be held on the date designated herein for any annual meeting of the unit owners or at any adjournment thereof, the board of directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Association as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, not more than 60 days after said time, by proper notice designating the meeting as the annual meeting.

C. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Association for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Chairman or by a majority of the board of directors and shall be called by the Chairman at the request of not less than 20 percent of the unit owners entitled to vote at the meeting.

D. Place of Meeting. Such place as the board of directors may designate shall be the place of meeting for all annual and special meetings of the unit owners.

E. Notice of Meeting. Written or printed notice stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than seven nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the discretion of the Chairman, the Secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each unit owner entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the unit owner at the owner's last known address on the records of the Association, with postage thereon prepaid.

F. Quorum and Voting of Unit Owners. At any meeting of the Association, unit owners owning more than 50 percent of the voting rights, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum; and the concurring vote of a majority of such unit owners present and constituting a quorum shall be valid and binding upon the Association, except as otherwise provided by law, these Bylaws, or the Declaration. If less than 50 percent of the voting rights are represented at a meeting, a Majority of the Unit Owners represented may adjourn a meeting from time to time without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noted. The unit owners present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding withdrawals of enough unit owners to leave less than a quorum. Declarant shall be the voting owner with respect to any unit owned by the Declarant.

If a voting owner owns or represents more than one unit, the owner shall have votes corresponding with each unit which the owner owns or represents. In the event the owner or owners have pledged their votes regarding special matters to a mortgagee under a duly recorded mortgage and notice thereof has been given to the Secretary or manager of the Association, only the vote of the mortgagee will be recognized in regard to the special matters upon which the votes are so pledged.

An administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee may vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Association with respect to any unit owned or held by such individual or organization in such capacity, whether or not the same shall have been transferred to the name of such individual or organization; provided that such individual or officer shall satisfy the Secretary that the individual or officer is the executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee holding such unit in such capacity. Whenever any unit is owned by two or more persons jointly, according to the records of the Association, a vote thereof may be exercised by any one of the owners then present, in the absence of protest by a co-owner or as shall be determined by any Co-ownership Agreement. In the event of protest by a co-owner, the vote shall be divided by the number of co-owners, and each co-owner shall cast an equal fractional vote. unless otherwise determined by any Co-ownership Agreement.

G. Proxies. At all meetings of the unit owners, a unit owner may vote by proxy executed in writing by the unit owner or by the owner's duly authorized attorney in fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association before or at the time of the meeting.

6. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

A. General Powers. Subsequent to the turnover meeting, the business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by its board of directors, who shall be unit owners. The board shall be responsible for preparing or causing to be prepared and filing any required income tax return or forms for the Association. The board shall also be responsible for the maintenance, upkeep and repair of the common elements. The number of directors of the Association shall be five. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. In the event that a majority of units in the project are the principal residences of the occupants, for other than emergency meetings, notice of the board of directors' meetings shall be posted in a place or places within the project at least three days prior to the meeting, or notice shall be provided by a method otherwise reasonably calculated to inform unit owners of such meetings. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because a meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

E. Quorum of Directors. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors or by reason of the removal of one or more directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of the unit owners called for that purpose.

H. Presumption of Assent. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors at which action on any matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director shall file a written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

I. Removal of Directors. 10. CONTRACTS. The board of directors may authorize any officer or director, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Association; and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. The board shall have the right to make additions, alterations, or improvements to the common elements and to pay for the same out of the reserve funds established by the board, or to specifically assess the several units therefor as a common expense.

No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Association, and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the board of directors and approved by the affirmative vote of the owners of 75 percent of the voting rights. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

All checks, drafts, vouchers and other orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Association shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the Association and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the resolution of the board of directors.

14. COMMON EXPENSES. The owner of each unit shall be liable for and pay a share of the common expenses in proportion to his interest in the common elements. Common expenses shall include the cost of all utilities, except for the cost of utilities which are billed by the provider of the utility services directly to the individual owners, assessments, insurance, including fire and other casualty and liability insurance, cost of repair, reinstatement, rebuilding, or replacement of the premises, including the dividing walls between adjoining outdoor decks, yard, janitorial, and other similar services, wages, accounting and legal fees, management fees, and other necessary expenses of upkeep, maintenance, management, and operation actually incurred on or for the common elements. Common expenses shall also include such amounts as the board of directors may deem proper to make up any deficit in the common expenses of any prior year. The Association shall establish a reserve account for the periodic maintenance, repair, and replacement of certain common elements pursuant to the Oregon Condominium Act. Such reserve account shall be maintained out of regular assessments for common expenses. 15. COLLECTION OF UNIT OWNERS' SHARES OF COMMON EXPENSES.

A. Statements. Unit owners' shares of common expenses shall be collected either annually or monthly, in advance, by the Treasurer of the Association. Each unit owner shall be entitled to receive from the Treasurer at the time of payment of common expenses an itemized statement of common expenses. Such itemized statement shall be prepared in such manner as the board of directors shall determine.

B. Late Charges. The board of directors may impose a late charge not to exceed five percent of the amount of any statement which is not paid within 15 days after it is rendered. The imposition of a late charge shall be without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Association.

C. Liens. The Association shall have a lien as provided in Section 19 of the Declaration. If the Association records a lien notice, the unit owner shall be liable for the cost of preparation and recording of the notice.

16. INSURANCE. The Association, through the board of directors, shall obtain and maintain at all times and shall pay for out of common expense funds the following insurance covering both the common elements and individual units, including fixtures, equipment, and other property which would ordinarily be required to be covered by a holder of a first mortgage:

(i) Property insurance including, but not limited to, fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, and

(ii) Insurance covering the legal liability of the Association, the unit owners individually and the manager, including but not limited to, the board of directors, the public and the unit owners and their invitees or tenants, incident to ownership, supervision, control or use of the Property. There may be excluded from the policy required under this subsection, coverage of a unit owner, other than coverage as a member of the Association or board of directors, for liability arising out of acts or omissions of that unit owner and liability incident to the ownership or use of the part of the Property as to which that unit owner has the exclusive use or occupancy. Liability insurance required under this subsection shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall provide a cross liability endorsement providing that the rights of a named insured under the policy shall not prejudice any action against another named insured.

The Association must, with regard to such insurance, observe the requirements appearing in Section 803.07P of the FNMA Home Mortgage Servicing Contract Supplement or the applicable provisions of any successor publication.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions and requirements relating to property or liability insurance, there may be named as an insured, on behalf of the Association, the Association's authorized representative, including any trustee with whom such Association may enter into any insurance trust agreement or any successor to such trustee (each of whom shall be referred to herein as the "Insurance Trustee"), who shall have exclusive authority to negotiate losses under any policy providing such property or liability insurance.

Each unit owner appoints any Insurance Trustee or substitute Insurance Trustee designated by the Association, as an attorney-in-fact for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining such insurance, including: the collection and appropriate disposition of the proceeds thereof; the negotiation of losses and execution of releases of liability; the execution of all documents; and the performance of all other acts necessary to accomplish such purpose. The Association or any insurance trustee shall receive, hold or otherwise properly dispose of any proceeds of insurance in trust for unit owners and their first mortgage holders, as their interests may appear.

17. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS. Each director and officer of the Association now or hereafter in office, and any directors or officers, heirs, executors and administrators, shall be indemnified by the Association against all costs, expenses, amounts or liability therefor, including counsel fees, which are reasonably incurred by or imposed upon the director or officer in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, proceeding or claim to which the director or officer may be made a party, or in which the director or officer may be or become involved by reason of the director's or officer's acts or alleged acts of omission or commission as such director or officer, or subject to the provisions hereof, any settlement thereof, whether or not the director or officer continues to be such director or officer at the time of incurring such costs, expenses or amounts. Such indemnification shall not apply, however, with respect to any matter as to which such director or officer shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been individually guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of duties as such director or officer. Further, the indemnification herein provided shall apply with respect to any settlement of any such suit, action, proceeding or claim, including reimbursement or any amounts paid and expenses reasonably incurred in settling any such suit, action, proceeding or claim when, in the judgment of the board of directors, a settlement or reimbursement appears to be in the best interests of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other rights as to which any such director or officer may be entitled under any agreement, vote of unit owners or otherwise.

18. REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE OF UNITS. Every unit owner shall at all times keep the unit owner's unit in good order and repair and shall promptly perform all such work within the owner's unit, the omission of which would affect any common elements or other units, and shall be responsible for all loss and damage caused by his failure to do so.

All repairs of internal installations within each unit, such as water, light, gas, power, sewers, telephones, sanitation, doors, windows, lamps and all other fixtures and accessories belonging to such unit, including interior walls and partitions and the innerdecorated or finished surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings of such unit, and the interior surfaces of any limited common element appurtenant to such unit, excluding the dividing walls between adjoining outdoor decks, shall be at the unit owner's expense.

Every unit owner shall reimburse the Association for any expenditure incurred in repairing or replacing any common element or furniture, furnishings, and equipment thereof damaged or lost through the fault of such unit owner or any person using the project under the owner and shall give prompt notice to the managing agent of any such damage, loss or other defect when discovered.

19. COLLECTION FROM TENANTS. All leases or rental agreements for units shall be in writing and specifically subject to the requirements of the Declaration and Bylaws. If the unit owner shall at any time rent or lease the owner's unit and shall default for a period of 30 days or more in the payment of the unit owner's proportionate share of common expenses and of taxes and assessments, or any installment thereof, the board may, at its option, so long as such default continues, demand and receive from any tenant of the unit owner occupying the unit the rent due or becoming due from such tenant to the unit owner, up to an amount sufficient to pay all sums due from the unit owner, including interest, if any, and any such payment of such rent to the board by the tenant shall be sufficient discharge of such tenant as between such tenant and the unit owner to the extent of the amount so paid. But any such demand or acceptance of rent from any tenant shall not be deemed to be a consent to or approval of any lease by the unit owner or a release or discharge of any of the obligations of the unit owner hereunder. In the event the board makes demand upon the tenant as aforesaid, the tenant shall not have the right to question the right of the board to make such demand, but shall be obligated to make said payments to the board, as demanded by the board, with the effect as aforesaid; provided, however, the board may not exercise this right if a receiver has been appointed to take charge of the premises pending a mortgage foreclosure or if a mortgagee is in possession pending a mortgage foreclosure.

20. COMPLIANCE.

A. Subordination. These Bylaws are subordinate and subject to the provisions of the Declaration and all amendments thereto and the Oregon Condominium Act; and in case of any conflict the latter shall control. All terms herein (except where clearly repugnant to the context) shall have the same meaning as in the Declaration or the Oregon Condominium Act.

B. Interpretation. In case any provision of these Bylaws shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not render invalid any other provision hereof which can be given effect. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be deemed or construed to authorize the Association or board of directors to conduct or engage in any act or business for profit on behalf of any of or all the unit owners.

21. AMENDMENTS. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by resolution of the board of directors or by a unit owner. Any proposed amendment shall be delivered in writing, either personally or by mail, to each unit owner entitled to vote not less than ten nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting at which the proposed amendment will be voted upon or attached to any request for amendment. If mailed, such notice or request shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the unit owner at the unit owner's last known address on the records of the Association, with postage thereon prepaid. No amendment of the Bylaws proposed in either of such ways shall be effective unless approved by a Majority of the Unit Owners, except for amendments relating to age restrictions, pet restrictions, limitations on the number of persons who may occupy units and limitations on the rental or leasing of units which shall require approval by 75% of the unit owners, either in writing or at a duly constituted meeting, and until a copy of the By-laws, as amended, or the amendment thereto, has been certified by the Chairman and Secretary of the Association, approved by the Real Estate Commissioner, if required by law, and recorded with the recording officer of Deschutes County, Oregon.

These Bylaws may not be amended to limit or diminish any special declarant right of Declarant without the consent of Declarant.

22. USE RESTRICTIONS. The units and the common elements are subject to certain use restrictions relating to permitted pets specified in the Declaration.
