Condominium.

4. Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be maintained in the State of Oregon at such place as the board of directors of the Corporation ("Board") may determine from time to time.

5. Registered Office and Registered Agent. The registered office of the Corporation shall be located in the State of Oregon at such place as may be fixed from time to time by the Board upon filing such notices as may be required by law. Any change in the registered agent or registered office shall be effective upon filing such change with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon unless a later date is specified. The Corporation does not intend to amend the Condominium declaration each time there is a change in the Corporation's registered agent or registered office.

6. Vote. Each unit shall have a vote equal to its undivided percentage interest in the general common elements as set forth in the latest Condominium declaration, as amended and supplemented, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Deschutes County, Oregon (collectively referred to as "Declaration"). Each unit shall be entitled to vote cumulatively only in the election and removal of Directors.

ARTICLE II

Members and Meetings

1. Composition and Voting Rights. The Corporation shall be composed of all owners of units in the condominium known as "The Inn of the Seventh Mountain." However, (i) in the case of units which are subject to installment contracts of sale, the contract purchasers shall be the members and not the contract sellers who are merely holding title as collateral; and (ii) if the condominium form of ownership ever terminates, the members of the Corporation shall be those individuals and entities who were members at the time of termination and their respective successors in interest of record. A personal representative, guardian, conservator or trustee may vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Corporation with respect to any unit owned or held by him in such capacity, whether or not the same shall have been transferred to his name, provided that he shall satisfy the Secretary that he is the personal representative, guardian, conservator or trustee holding such unit in such capacity. Whenever any unit is owned by two or more jointly, according to the records of the Corporation, the vote therefor may be exercised by any one of the owners in the absence of protest by a co-owner, but in the event of such protest, no one co-owner shall be entitled to vote without the withdrawal of the protest or the approval of all co-owners.

2. Proxies. A proxy given by a unit owner to any person to represent such owner at meetings of the Corporation shall be in writing and signed by such owner and shall be filed with the Board at least five days prior to the date of the meeting at which the proxy is to be exercised. No proxy shall be valid for more than 11 months after the date of the proxy unless the proxy expressly provides for a longer period of effectiveness.

3. Initial Meeting. The initial meeting of the unit owners shall be held on October ____, 1998.

4. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Corporation shall be held in either the month of October or November, each calendar year. The annual meetings shall be held for the purpose of electing Directors, and for the transaction of any other Corporation business brought before the meeting.

5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Corporation may be called at any time by any Director or upon the request of unit owners owning at least one-third (1/3) of the undivided percentage interest in the general common elements. At any such special meeting, only such business shall be transacted as shall have been set forth in the notice of such meeting.

6. Quorum.

(a) At any meeting of the Corporation, unit owners owning at least fifty percent (50%) of the undivided interest in the general common elements present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum and the concurring vote of a majority of such quorum shall be valid and binding upon the Corporation, except as otherwise provided by law or by these bylaws. If any meeting cannot be held because a quorum is not present, the meeting may be, or in the case of the annual meeting, shall be, adjourned to any subsequent Saturday or Sunday within 28 days and at such time and place in Oregon as a majority of ownership of the undivided percentage interest in the general common elements then present in person or by proxy so decide.

(b) At an adjourned annual meeting, which was adjourned by reason of lack of a quorum, a quorum shall be unit owners owning at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the undivided interest in the general common elements present in person or by proxy. In the case of an adjourned special meeting or an adjourned annual meeting for reasons other than a lack of a quorum, a quorum shall continue to be unit owners owning at least fifty percent (50%) of the undivided interest in the general common elements present in person or by proxy.

7. Adjourned Meetings. Any meeting of the Corporation may be adjourned to any subsequent Saturday or Sunday within 28 days and at such place in Oregon as a majority of ownership of the undivided percentage interests in the general common elements then present in person or by proxy may determine, whether or not a quorum be present, without notice other than the announcement at the meeting. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted by a quorum at the meeting as originally called.

8. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the Corporation shall be held in the State of Oregon, at the time and place recited in the notice of such meeting or at the time and place set for an adjourned meeting as herein provided.

9. Notice of Meeting. Notice of all meetings shall be given by the Secretary in writing to each unit owner. Such notice shall be given not less than fourteen (14) days or more than sixty (60) days before the meeting, provided that no notice of a meeting need be given to any owner who shall waive such notice in writing or who shall be present at such meeting in person or by proxy. Written notice shall be effective, whether or not received, if mailed to the last known address of a unit owner shown on the books of the Corporation's Secretary and shall be effective as of the date mailed or personally delivered. The written ratification by any owner of any action taken at any meeting shall be equivalent of a waiver of a notice of such meeting by the one so ratifying.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

1. Election. The unit owners shall elect from among themselves a Board consisting of nine (9) persons so that each Director elected shall have term of three (3) years and until his successor be elected, so that the term of three (3) Directors shall expire annually.

2. Vacancies. In the event of the death, resignation or disqualification of any Director, the remaining Board shall elect a successor Director to serve on the Board until the next annual meeting of the Corporation. At the next annual meeting the unit owners shall elect a successor Director who shall hold office for the unexpired term of the Director whose office was vacated.

3. Nominating Committee. A nominating committee of three (3) unit owners, with one designated as Chairman, shall be appointed by the Board. Members of the committee shall serve for a term of one year or until successors are duly appointed and shall be selected from owners other than incumbent members of the Board. An attempt shall be made to provide the committee with reasonable representation of owners. The committee shall prepare a slate of consenting nominees for vacancies on the Board, which are to be filled at the annual meeting. The slate of nominees shall contain no more nominees than two times (2x) the number of positions to be filled. The slate of nominees shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the annual meeting.

4. Term Limit. No unit owner shall be eligible for nomination or election to serve more than two successive three-year terms as a director.

5. Powers. The Board shall be vested with the power of management of all the affairs of the Corporation, including, but without being limited to, the power to direct the purchase by the Corporation of such property as the purposes thereof shall require, to provide for the incurring of debts on behalf of the Corporation, the issuance of notes or other evidence of such debts, and to provide for the mortgage, pledge or hypothecation of all or any part of the assets of the Corporation; provided that the Board shall not make any structural alteration, capital additions to, or capital improvements of, the common areas requiring an expenditure in any one (1) year in excess of eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) without the prior approval of unit owners owning at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the undivided interest in the general common elements. Nothing contained in the preceding sentence, shall limit the authority of the Board to make any structural replacements and repairs and such other capital replacements or repairs as may be reasonably necessary to maintain the common areas and common elements in good condition and repair. The Board may also engage the services of an individual or entity manager and provide for his or its compensation. The Board may delegate to such manager the power to contract for services and to employ gardeners, workmen and other help for the operation, security and maintenance of the common elements. The Board may also delegate to such manager any additional powers and duties, including the power to initiate suits or actions on behalf of the Corporation to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

6. Removal. The entire Board or any individual Director may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of unit owners owning at least fifty percent (50%) of the undivided interest in the general common elements. If any or all Directors are so removed, new Directors shall be elected at the same meeting. The notice of such meeting must state that such removal was to be considered and, further, that a substitute Director shall be elected at the same meeting for the then unexpired term of the Director(s) so removed.

7. Compensation. The Directors, as such, shall serve without compensation. However, the Directors may be reimbursed for expenses as approved by the Board.

8. Meetings.

(a) The Board shall hold meetings when and in such place as the Chairman shall designate, or, in the case of his absence, incapacity or refusal to call a meeting, then as may be designated by a majority of the Board. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held at the place of the annual meeting of the Corporation as soon as practical thereafter and no written notice thereof shall be necessary. The presence of a Director at any meeting of the Board shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting the Director was supposed to be given before the meeting.

(b) All meetings of the Board shall be open to all unit owners; provided, however, that the Board may meet in executive session to discuss and be advised on (but not vote on) matters subject to the attorney-client privilege or involving personnel.

9. Notice of Meetings. The Secretary shall give notice in writing of each meeting of the Board, except the meeting following the annual meeting of the Corporation, to each Director at least seven (7) days before the meeting. The failure to give notice shall not invalidate any action at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum of the Directors is present. The presence of any Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of any required notice of such meeting.

10. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and in every case the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board shall be necessary to the validity of any act of the Board.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

1. Office, Election, and Removal. The Board shall elect at its annual organizational meeting a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer, each of whom shall serve for the ensuing year and until his successor shall be elected. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be elected from the Board. The Secretary and the Treasurer need not be members of the Board or unit owners. The Board may elect such other officers as it may deem necessary, who shall have such authority and perform such duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board. One person may hold more than one office, except that the Chairman shall hold no other office. Any officer shall be subject to removal from his office at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If an office shall become vacant for any reason, the Board shall elect a successor to fill the unexpired term.

2. Chairman. The Chairman shall preside over all meetings of the Board and the Corporation at which he shall be present. In his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside. The Chairman shall have the powers and perform the duties customarily incidental to his office and such other powers and duties as are assigned to him elsewhere in these bylaws, by the Declaration or by law, or as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Board.

3. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep minute books which shall contain all resolutions duly passed, all other actions taken at any meeting by the unit owners or the Board, and in which the minutes of the meetings of the unit owners and the Board shall be recorded. The Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the unit owners and the Board. The Secretary shall have the powers and perform the duties customarily incidental to the office and such other powers and duties as may be assigned to the Secretary from time to time by the Board.

4. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall:

- (a) Keep all the Corporation's financial records and books of account;
- (b) Have custody of all funds and securities of the Corporation and be responsible for the safekeeping of all money, notes, bonds and other money instruments owned by or entrusted to the Corporation;
- (c) Be responsible to review and approve all payment vouchers for services, labor and materials furnished for the common elements;
- (d) Render statements in such form and as often as required by the Board or the Corporation;
- (e) Mail an audited financial statement to each unit owner as soon as practicable after the end of the fiscal year of the Corporation;
- (f) Have the powers and perform the duties customarily incidental to his office and such other powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Board; and
- (g) Be bonded;

5. Compensation. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall serve without compensation as such. The Secretary and Treasurer may receive such compensation as the Board may determine appropriate, if any.

ARTICLE V

Restrictions and Rules and Regulations

1. Restrictions on Use and Occupancy of Units. Paragraph 8 of the Amended Declaration, dated January 28, 1972, made by Condominiums Northwest, Inc., recorded in the public records of Deschutes County, Oregon, in Volume 182, at Page 109, contains certain restrictions on the use and occupancy of Condominium units, which are hereby incorporated by reference in their entirety with the same effect as if they were set forth in these bylaws verbatim.

2. Restrictions on Ownership of Units. No unit shall be owned as a "time share estate" as defined in the Oregon Condominium Act or in any other manner commonly known as or which is the equivalent of a "time share estate." Nor shall any unit be owned at any time by more than six owners. Nor shall more than six buyers purchase a unit under an installment sale contract. In determining the number of owners or contract vendees, a husband and wife shall be counted as one, a partnership or limited liability company shall be counted as being equal to the number of its members, a trust shall be counted as being equal to the number of its beneficiaries, and a corporation shall be counted as six unless it has less than six stockholders. However, a corporation shall designate in notice to the Association, no more than six individuals who shall have a legally enforceable right to use and occupy the unit.

3. Rules and Regulations. In order to assure the peaceful and orderly use and enjoyment of the Condominium, and particularly of the common elements of the Condominium, the Board from time to time may adopt, modify and revoke in whole or in part rules and regulations governing the conduct of persons and the operation and use of the units and common elements as the Board may deem necessary or appropriate. Such rules and regulations are subject to modification or revocation by the unit owners at any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose. A copy of such rules and regulations, upon adoption, and a copy of each amendment, modification or revocation thereof shall be delivered or mailed by the Secretary promptly to each unit owner and shall be binding on all unit owners and occupants of all units from the date of delivery or mailing.

ARTICLE VI

Maintenance, Upkeep and Repair of Common Elements

1. Obligation to Maintain. Subject to the provisions of the Condominium declaration, as modified from time to time, governing casualty and condemnation; the Board shall cause the common elements, including the general and limited common elements, to be maintained, kept up, repaired and replaced.

2. Costs of Maintenance. The costs and expenses of maintaining, keeping up, repairing and replacing the common elements, shall be a common expense of the Condominium and paid for with the common charges paid by the units owners and/or any reserves established by the Corporation for such purposes.

3. Personnel. The Board shall be authorized to employ, discipline and discharge all personnel necessary for the maintenance, upkeep and repair of the common elements; and may delegate to the Condominium manager, responsibility for the day-to-day supervision of the personnel.

ARTICLE VII

Expenses

1. Expenses and Assessments.

(a) The Board shall assess each unit owner and each unit owner shall pay to the Corporation, the unit owners' pro rata share of the common Condominium expenses, including, but without being limited to, the cost of operation, and the costs of insurance. One of the items of common expense for which the Board shall assess the unit owners is the monthly rent necessary to maintain in full force and effect, the lease covering the Condominium land, dated February 13, 1970 ("Lease"), between Condominium Land Co., as lessor, and Condominiums Northwest, Inc., as lessee, recorded in Volume 168 at Page 874, in the public records of Deschutes County, Oregon, as modified from time to time. In allocating this common expense, the Board shall assess each unit owner based on the type of his unit as computed pursuant to the lease agreement. [The preceding sentence is required by Declaration Sec. 12 (at Vol 182, page 115)] The Board shall fix a monthly assessment for each unit in an amount sufficient to provide for all current expenses, a reasonable reserve for future expenses and such other expenses as the Board may deem necessary.

(b) Monthly assessments shall be due and payable monthly in advance on the first (1st) day of every month without demand. Delinquent assessments shall bear interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per month from the due date until paid ("Default Rate"). The amounts received shall be held by the Treasurer in trust until expended for purposes for which they were assessed. In the event any monthly assessment is not paid within ten days after the date payment is due, each unit owner responsible for making the payment shall pay to the Corporation: (i) the delinquent assessments together with interest at the Default Rate until payment is collected by the Association; and (ii) all costs and expenses of every nature which are incurred by the Corporation at any time, in the Corporation's efforts to collect the delinquent assessment and/or defend the validity or priority of the assessment or its lien ("Collection Costs"), including without limitation intended and by way of example only, collection agency fees, court costs, fees for title insurance reports and policies, expert witness' fees, court reporter fees and costs including fees for taking and transcribing depositions, the reasonable fees and disbursements of the Corporation's attorneys (if there is litigation, such fees and disbursements to be set by the court in which the case is tried, heard or appealed, including any bankruptcy court), and in any judgment there shall be included a reasonable estimate of the attorneys' fees and disbursements which are reasonably likely to be incurred by the Association in its efforts to collect the judgment. All Collection Costs shall bear interest at the Default Rate from the date Collection Costs are incurred to the date payment is collected.

2. Liens and Foreclosures. The assessments referred to in the preceding paragraph 1 of this Article VII, together with interest at the Default Rate, and all Collection Costs, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall constitute a lien upon each unit and shall be collected as provided by Oregon law. Upon foreclosure of such lien, the rental income from the unit shall be applied to payment of: (i) the common expenses of the unit; (ii) the first priority mortgage or trust deed payments thereon; (iii) the delinquent assessments, together with interest at the Default Rate; and (iv) Collection Costs, together with interest at the Default Rate. The Corporation in such foreclosure shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent and pay the expenses. The manager, acting on behalf of the Corporation, shall have the power to bid in the judgment at the foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage and convey the unit. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments, interest, attorneys' fees and disbursements, shall be maintainable against any unit owner without either foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the unpaid assessments and interest. The lien for non-payment of common expenses shall have priority over all other liens and encumbrances, recorded or unrecorded, except only real estate tax and assessment liens, and first priority mortgage or trust deed liens of record.

ARTICLE VIII

Insurance Coverage

1. Casualty and Liability Insurance. The Board shall obtain and maintain at all times and shall pay for out of the common expense funds, insurance which at a minimum satisfies the requirements in Section 19 of the Declaration, including without limitation intended, the following insurance covering both the common elements and individual Condominium units:

(a) Property insurance including, but not limited to, fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief; and

(b) Insurance covering the legal liability of the Corporation, its directors, officers, the unit owners individually and the Condominium manager, incident to ownership, supervision, control or use of the Condominium property. There may be excluded from the policy required under this paragraph, coverage of a unit owner, other than coverage as a member of the Corporation or Board, for liability arising out of acts or omissions of that unit owner and liability incident to the ownership or use of the part of the property as to which that unit owner has exclusive use or occupancy. Liability insurance required under this paragraph shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall provide a cross liability indorsement providing that the rights of a named insured under the policy shall not prejudice any action against another named insured.

2. Workers' Compensation. The Board shall obtain and maintain at all times and shall pay for out of the common expense funds, workers' compensation insurance to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable law.

3. Fidelity Bond. The Board shall obtain and maintain a fidelity bond covering the manager and any other person designated by the Board, as principals, and the Corporation and unit owners, as obligees, in an amount at least equal to fifty percent (50%) of the total common Condominium expense assessments collected during the preceding year.

4. Best's Insurance Reports Rating. All policies shall be written by a company licensed to provide insurance in the State of Oregon, which have a "Best's Letter Rating" of not less than "A" ("Excellent"), with no adverse "Rating Modifier," and a "Financial Size Category" of not less than "Class VIII" (or their then current equivalents) in the most current "Best's Key Rating Guide" or a substitute or successor publication selected by the Board.

ARTICLE IX

Books, Records, Annual Financial Statement and Report

1. Financial Records. The Corporation shall keep financial records sufficient for proper accounting purposes.

2. Audited Financial Statement. Within 90 days after the end of the Corporation's fiscal year or as soon thereafter as feasible, the Treasurer shall distribute to each unit owner a copy of the annual financial statement for the preceding fiscal year. [Declaration Sec 25 requires annual audit and distribution of copies to owner (Vol 182, page 125)]

3. Examination of Records. The documents, information and records described in Paragraphs 1 and 2. and all other records of the Corporation shall be reasonably available for examination by a unit owner and any mortgagee of a unit. Upon the written request of an owner or mortgagee of a unit, the Corporation shall make the documents, information and records available for duplication during reasonable hours.

4. Duplication of Documents for Unit Owners. The Corporation shall maintain a copy, suitable for the purpose of duplication, of the following:

(a) The declaration, articles, bylaws, Condominium rules and regulations and any amendments or supplements thereto;

(b) The most recent annual financial statement prepared in accordance with Paragraph 2 above; and

(c) The current operating budget of the Corporation.

5. Duplication of Documents for Prospective Purchasers. Upon the written request of a prospective purchaser, the Corporation shall make available for examination and duplication during reasonable hours the documents and information specified in Paragraph 4 above.

6. Charges for Duplication. The Corporation may charge a reasonable fee for furnishing copies of any documents, information or records described in this Article IX.

7. Annual Reports. Pursuant to ORS 100.250, the Board shall file with the Secretary of State, an Annual Report described in ORS 100.260 (2) every year not later than the report date.

ARTICLE X

Miscellaneous

1. Subordinate to Declaration. These bylaws are subject and subordinate to the provisions of the Declaration.

2. Execution of Instruments. All checks, drafts, notes, bonds, acceptances, deeds, leases, contracts and other instruments shall be signed by such person or persons as may be designated by general or special resolution of the Board and, in the absence of any such general or special resolution applicable to any such instrument, then such instrument shall be signed by the Chairman.

3. Definitions. The terms used in these bylaws shall have the meaning defined in the Oregon Condominium Act and the Declaration. "Condominium" as defined in these bylaws is the equivalent of "project" as defined in said Declaration.

These bylaws supersede all previous bylaws of the Condominium including those adopted February 13, 1970, recorded February 25, 1970, in Book 168 at Page 917, deed records, of Deschutes County, Oregon, as amended December 30, 1973 and recorded January 4, 1974 in Book 202 at Page 144, as amended June 2, 1974 and recorded July 25, 1974 in Book 208 at Page 922, as amended and recorded June 2, 1980 in Book 322 at Page 555, as amended December 17, 1981 and recorded February 2, 1982 in Book 353 at Page 425, as amended May 11, 1994 and recorded June 30, 1994 in Book 344 at Page 1732.
