25. Term: These restrictions shall run with the land and shall be binding on the owner or tenant of any or all of said land and all persons claiming by, through, or under them until 2014, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years unless by vote of majority of the then owners of the parcels, it is agreeable to change said covenants in whole or part.

Binding: The foregoing conditions and restrictions shall bind and inure to the benefit of each of the owners or occupants of any portion of Park Place Estates and each of their legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns, and a failure, either by the owners above named or their legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns, to enforce any of such conditions or restrictions shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.
28. Omission or Conflict: When those covenants do not cover a situation, the rules and regulations of Deschutes County shall be applied. In all cases, where there are conflicting rules showing a difference in requirements, the strictest of the two is to be used. The decision of the developer shall govern in determining which rules are the strictest.

These restrictions may be amended or modified at any time by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the then owners of the parcels in Park Place Estates. For this purpose, the owner of record of each parcel of the land described above shall be entitled to one vote.
