MEETINGS OF UNIT OWNERS: The Board of Directors or three unit owners may call a meeting of the unit owners by sending a notice not less than twenty (20) nor more than fifty (50) days prior to such meeting to each of the other unit owners. Owners representing at least 75% of the total number of units in the Condominium shall be required to constitute a quorum. Additionally, the Board shall annually call a meeting within 60 days of, before or after, the anniversary of the turnover meeting ("annual meeting"). If the owners of a unit cannot agree on how to cast their vote, then the vote shall not be counted though the unit shall be deemed present for the purpose of constituting a quorum. If a person owns more than one unit, the person may cast as many votes as the number of units the person owns. In these Bylaws, "majority vote" shall mean the majority of the quorum present. If at any time during a meeting a quorum is no longer present then the meeting must be adjourned until a meeting can be called with a quorum. Meetings can be adjourned for periods of not more than eight (8) hours without additional notice being required. The secretary shall record in the minutes how each unit voted on the measures before the Association except that the election of the Board shall be by secret ballot. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, the Board or the Association can make a decision upon a majority vote.

Section 11. ELECTION OF A BOARD OF DIRECTORS: An initial Board of Directors, consisting of three unit owners, shall be elected at the turnover meeting and each year at the annual meeting. The term of office shall be one year or until the next annual meeting, whichever occurs first. Election shall be by position: "Director 1, Director 2, and Director 3". Election shall be held first for Director 1, then for Director 2 and finally for Director 3. All unit owners may vote for each position. Any vacancy in a Board position shall be filled within 60 days of the occurrence of the vacancy by a vote of the unit owners at the annual or a special meeting.

Section 12. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD: The Board shall have the power to administer the day-to-day activities of the Association. The Board may enter into contracts as allowed by these bylaws which do not require unanimous consent or specific consent of the unit owners. Any matters requiring unanimous consent of the unit owners may be made only after a discussion at an annual or special meeting and only in writing signed by all unit owners. The Board shall cause to be prepared, and shall file, any tax returns required by law. The Board shall serve without compensation, however, upon majority approval of unit owners, the Board member's expenses may be reimbursed.

Section 13. BOARD MEETINGS: The Board shall determine between themselves how Board meetings are to be conducted. The Board shall meet as necessary to conduct the business of the Association. Minutes of Board meetings shall be kept with the records of the Association. All Board meetings shall be open to the unit owners. Board meetings may be called by any Board member. Notice of Board meetings shall be delivered or mailed to each unit owner no less than 72 hours prior to the meeting. Section 15. OFFICERS: The Board shall choose between themselves a presiding officer, a secretary and treasurer. No Board member shall hold more than one such office except in cases of removal of a Board member and the vacancy has not yet been filled.

Section 16. MAINTENANCE: The maintenance, upkeep and repair of the common elements shall be contracted for by the Association annually and as needed. Any personnel employed, other than independent contractors, shall only be made after a majority vote of the unit members. Payments shall be made upon receipt of billings and from an account owned by the Association and approved by the Board.

Section 17. ASSESSMENT:

17.1 At the annual meeting the unit members shall decide by majority vote the amount and payment schedule of the annual assessment. No assessment shall be larger than necessary for the maintenance, insurance, upkeep, repair or replacement of the improvements existing at the time of the Declaration, and an additional contingency fund of not more than 15% more than necessary for the matters listed herein. Any new improvement shall require the unanimous consent of the unit owners.

17.2 In the event the units contemplated in stage 2 are added during the course of a fiscal year, the assessment on said units, once conveyed to someone other than the Declarant, shall be paid at the time the unit is conveyed and shall be an amount equal to the existing assessment multiplied by the fractional amount of the year remaining.

Section 18. DELINQUENT ASSESSMENTS: Any unpaid or overdue assessment shall be collectable upon ten day's written notice to the unit owner. If the overdue assessment is not paid, then the Association may sue the unit owner in the appropriate court of law. All costs of collection, including by not limited to attorney fees at trial and on appeal, shall be added to the assessment. As an alternative to the procedure set forth herein, the Association may lien the property as provided by ORS chapter 100. The unit owner shall remain personally liable for all assessments, though a judgment or lien may attach to the unit or any other real or personal property of the unit owner.

Section 19. INSURANCE: The Association shall have sole authority to decide whether to repair or reconstruct a unit that has suffered damage or that a unit must be repaired or reconstructed. The Board shall obtain and maintain at all times and shall pay for out of the common expense fund, the following insurance covering both the common elements and individual units:

19.1 Property insurance including, but not limited to, fire, extended coverage, vandalism, and malicious mischief; and supervision, control or use of the property. There may be excluded from the policy required under this paragraph, coverage of a unit owner, other than coverage as a member of the Association or Board, for liability arising out of acts or omissions of that unit owner and liability incident to the ownership or use of the part of the property as to which that unit owner has the exclusive use or occupancy. Liability insurance required under this paragraph shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall provide a cross liability indorsement providing that the rights of a named insured under the policy shall not prejudice any action against another named insured.

Section 20. ASSOCIATION RECORDS:

20.1 The Association shall retain the documents, information and records delivered to the Association at the turnover meeting. The Association shall keep financial records sufficient for proper accounting purposes. Within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year, the Board shall distribute to each unit owner a copy of the annual financial statement consisting of a balance sheet and income and expense statement for the preceding year. The documents, information, and records of the Association shall be reasonably available for examination by a unit owner and any mortgagee of a unit. "Mortgagee" includes the beneficiary of a trust deed or vendor of a land sale contract.

20.2 At the same time the Board distributes the annual financial statement, the Board shall file an Annual Report and any amendment with the Secretary of State in accordance with ORS 100.250.

Section 21. ENFORCEMENT:

21.1 The Bylaws shall be specifically enforceable by Declarant, the Association or by any unit owner. Any breach of the Bylaws shall subject the breaching party to any and all legal remedies, including damages or the destruction, removal or the enjoining of any offending improvement or condition. All unit owners are bound by these Bylaws.

21.2 In the event either party engages an attorney to enforce these Bylaws or any of its terms, whether or not a suit or action is commenced, it is agreed that the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all expenses reasonably incurred before, at and after trial and on appeal whether or not taxable as costs, including, without limitation, attorney fees, witness fees (expert and otherwise), copying charges, deposition expenses, and other charges to be paid by the losing party to the prevailing party and to be fixed by the trial and appellate courts.

Section 22. RULES AND REGULATIONS: The Board may adopt reasonable rules and regulations regarding the use of common elements and shall distribute a complete list of said rules and regulations, with the date the rules become effective. Such rules or regulations shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of units and limited common elements by their respective unit owners, or with the use of the general common elements by the several unit owners. The Association shall not have the power to levy fines for the breach of any rule or regulation, but may apply for any other legal remedy, including but not limited to injunction.

Section 23. DURATION:

The Bylaws shall continue to remain in full force and effect at all times within respect to all property, and each part thereof, now or hereafter made subject thereto (subject however, to the right to amend and repeal as provided for therein) from the date these Bylaws are recorded. Should the Declaration be terminated as provided by Oregon law, these Bylaws shall also terminate. These Bylaws shall run with the land included in the Condominium and shall bind, benefit and burden all real property and improvements and shall inure to the benefit and shall bind Declarant, all successors and assigns of Declarant and all unit owners, their successors, assigns, heirs, administrators, executors, mortgagees, lessees, invitees or any other party claiming or deriving any right, title, or interest or use in or to any real property in the Condominium. The use restrictions and regulations set forth herein shall be binding upon all unit owners, lessees, licensees, occupants and users of the Condominium and their successors in interest, including any person who holds such interests as security for the payment of an obligation including any mortgagee or other security holder in actual possession of any lot by foreclosure or otherwise and any other person taking title from such security holder.
